Thirty-one Graduates Work Towards Master Of Arts Degree Here

Department of History Leads With Six; English Is Second; Biology, Third; Five Others Do Graduate Work But Have Not Applied for Degrees from This University

Thirty-one students are doing work this quarter toward masters' degrees from the State University. Of this number, 20 are graduates of this school. There are also five students doing work for graduate credit but not toward a masters' degree from the institution. The Department of History leads the list in the major departments with six enrolled. The Department of English follows with five and the Department of Biology and the School of Education have four each.

Those doing work toward masters' degrees, their degree, school and the major department in which they are doing their work are: William M. Belange, '31, B.A. in biology, State University, biology; C. Isabel Brown, '29, B.A. in history, State University, history; Allan Burke, '30, B.A. in physical education, State University, history; Raymond Calkins, '31, B.S. in forestry, State University, forestry; Oswald S. Charlson, '28, B.A. in education, Luther college, education; Dexter S. Fee, '29, B.S. in history, Whitman college, history; Leon C. Fitzgerald, '30, B.A. in English, Boston college, English.

H. S. Garret, '30, A.B. in education, East Central State Teachers' college (Ada, Okla.), education; Ruth Hazlett, '31, B.A. in history, State University, history; Marguerite Heinsch, B.A. in Latin, State University, Latin; Emory Johnson, '25, A.B. in psychology, Gustavus Adolphus college, psychology; Sylvia Johnson, '26, B.A. in Latin, State University, Latin; Hazel E. Landeen, '29, B.S. in pharmacy, University of Minnesota, pharmacy; M. Charlotte LeFever, '31, B.A. in English, University of Idaho, English; Axel C. Long, '30, A.B. in education, Morris College, education; Andrew H. McNaught, Jr., '31, B.A. in geology, State University, geology; C. N. Mason, '30, B.A. in business administration, State University, mathematics; Edward G. Markin, '30, B.S. in biology, Montana State college, biology.

Annie Mayo, '31, B.A. in history, State University, history; Vernon Mickelson, '31, A.B. in English, Stanford, English; Archie A. Murchie, '31, B.S. in forestry, State University, forestry; Mamie E. Nicolet, '31, B.A. in psychology, State University, psychology; Constance Nutt, '31, B.A. in English, Macalester college (St. Paul), English; Catherine Raudabaugh, '21, B.A. in education, State University, education; Albert Roberts, '31, B.A. in economics and sociology, State University, economics.

Monday Marks Opening of Fourth Annual Tractor School on Campus

More Than One Hundred Sixty Registrations Are Made During First Day; Demonstration Pictures Are Shown to Assembly

The fourth annual tractor school, sponsored by the School of Forestry and the Westmont Tractor company, opened yesterday morning at 9 o'clock in the Forestry building with a record attendance of more than one hundred and sixty registrations for the first day. The total enrollment of the two-day session last year was 163 with 90 registered the first morning.

The program yesterday started with the showing of slides which was followed by the address of welcome by T. C. Spaulding, dean of the School of Forestry. The assembly, of which many were farmers, witnessed talking pictures demonstrating earth moving, terracing and land leveling machinery in action. A slide lecture by J. F. Goss, chief of Caterpillar schools, featuring the history of Caterpillar development since the Holt-Caterpillar merger in 1925 and a talking picture with scenes laid around levee construction on the 700-mile Mississippi flood area, were the highlights of yesterday's session.

Afternoon Program

The program in the afternoon continued with lectures and slides on new and improved methods of farming and earth moving giving special prominence to power take-off equipment. During the noon intermissions the men inspected tractors and equipment at the Westmont show rooms and demonstration lots. Due to unseasonable weather it was impossible to place the heavy machinery on the campus for inspection.

Today's program was of special benefit to men interested in logging.

Changes in Spring Schedule Of Classrooms Are Made

Two changes have been made in the spring quarter schedule. They are: Geography and Natural Resources of Montana, which will meet in U107 at 10 o'clock instead of 9 o'clock, and Economics 105, Economic History of the United States, which will meet in F305 instead of in U107. Students are asked to watch for further possible changes in the schedule for next quarter in order to do away with registration mixups.

Dual Debate Will Be Held By Freshmen

State University and State College Forensic Teams Will Meet March 2

State University freshmen and State College freshmen will engage in a dual debate tomorrow night. One State University team will remain here to meet a traveling Bozeman team and another will go to Bozeman to debate there.

The Missoula debate will be held in Main hall auditorium at 8 o'clock. The State University will be represented by Aubrey Benton of Butte and Richard Farnsworth of Livingston. They will uphold the affirmative side of the question: Resolved, that Congress should enact legislation providing for centralized control of industry. Three judges not yet chosen will give the decision.

Harry Hoffner and Kenneth Rhude, both of Butte, will represent the State University at Bozeman on the same side of the same question. Thursday night they will stop in Butte to debate the State School of Mines on the same question.

A. W. S. Permits Freshmen Dates To Athletic Show

Board Holds Last Official Meeting of Quarter; Tea Is Planned For Next Monday

Freshmen women who attend the physical education demonstration tonight may have dates. This was decided upon by the A. W. S. board at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon. However, any freshman woman who has a date and does not attend the exhibition will suffer the usual penalty. Unless otherwise notified the students will observe the regular week night hours.

All petitions for A. W. S. offices are due at the first meeting next quarter. Eligibility lists must be in the registrar's office by the end of the quarter. It is very important that this be attended to as soon as possible in order that there will be no trouble at the time of elections.

Billy K. Burke, business manager of the A. S. U. M., spoke to the board yesterday about the fee of $1 which is to be charged for the Track Meet in May provided the petition is signed by 500 students. Burke stated that petitions would be sent to all fraternity and sorority houses and to each of the residence halls. He asked for the co-operation of the board in putting the measure over.

A tea will be given in the home economics dining room next Monday afternoon honoring outgoing board members. The meeting yesterday was the last official one for many of the officers who are seniors and who will be graduated in June.

ART EXHIBIT WILL STAY IN CITY ANOTHER WEEK

Permission to keep the exhibit of the New York School of Fine and Applied Arts for another week has been granted to the Department of Fine Arts by the American Federation of Arts, sponsors of the exhibit. This exhibit, which has been on display for the past week in the art room in of Main hall, consists chiefly of commercial art and interiors, representing the work of students of the New York school.

"In the exhibit are some of the best examples of commercial art as done by the student of today. Anyone interested may visit the collection at his convenience," said C. H. Riedell, chairman of the Department of Fine Arts.

Unanimous Decision Given Debate Team

Idaho and Washington State Squads Lose to Montana Men

Montana's traveling debate team received decisions in its first two engagements at the University of Idaho and Washington State college. This was announced yesterday in a telegram received by Darrell Parker, from Pullman.

At Moscow, Ida., an audience decision was given and Grant Kelleher and Edward Alexander, the Montana representatives, received the unanimous decision of those present, not a single vote being cast for the Idaho team. A critic judge at Pullman decided in favor of Montana.

Friday and Sunday debates were held at Whitman college in Walla Walla and last night the debaters were in Salem, Ore., meeting a Willamette team. Tonight they will debate an Oregon State college team at Corvallis.

Thompson and Krause Fill Vacancies Left in Bear Paw

Eddie Krause and Merth Thompson, both of Missoula, have been selected as members of Bear Paw, honorary sophomore organization, to replace Woodrow Nielson, Deer Lodge, and Billy Vickerman, Lewistown, who are not in school this quarter. The announcement was made between the halves of the Grizzly-Bobcat game Saturday by Bob Hendon, A. S. U. M. president. Both Krause and Thompson are prominent in school activities. As neither had sophomore standing last fall they were not eligible for Bear Paw membership at that time.

Harold Urey Finds Variety Of Hydrogen

Chemistry Graduate Develops New Gas As Result of Research At Columbia

Dr. Harold Urey, '17, former student at the State University, now associate professor at Columbia university, who is working in conjunction with Dr. G. M. Murphy, Columbia university, and Dr. F. B. Brickwedde, U. S. Bureau of Standards, has discovered a new kind of hydrogen.

Quoting from a local press report: "You may think there is only one kind of hydrogen, but there are two. Prof. Harold Urey and Dr. G. M. Murphy of Columbia university, together with Dr. F. G. Brickwedde of the U. S. Bureau of Standards, have found a new kind of hydrogen. It is twice as heavy as the ordinary gas and is about 14 times as dense as air."

Dr. Urey was graduated from the State University in 1917 with a bachelor of science degree in biology. He received his Ph.D. degree in physical chemistry from the University of California in 1923. In 1923-24 he went abroad on a traveling fellowship as an American-Scandinavian foundation fellow to Denmark. From 1924 to 1929 he was a member of the chemistry faculty at Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore. He served for two years as assistant professor in the Department of Chemistry here.

A short time ago he was named as co-author of a book known as "Atoms, Molecules and Quanta." The volume deals with advanced phases of physical chemistry and is considered an authority on atomic structures.

Dr. Urey visited in Missoula this past summer while on a western tour. While attending the State University, he was a member of Alpha Delta Alpha fraternity, now Kappa Sigma.

International Club Chooses Carl Pitt As New President

Mary Dohi and Florence Jarussi Are Other Officers; Club Gives Annual Radio Program

Carl Pitt of Helena was elected president of the International club to replace George Norris of Anaconda, at a special meeting of the club held last Tuesday evening at the home of Rev. Jesse Bunch. Norris has been called home for the rest of the school year due to the illness of his mother.

Other officers elected at this meeting were Mary Dohi, Glasgow, vice president, and Florence Jarussi, Red Lodge, secretary. A brief business discussion closed the meeting.

The club presented its annual radio program over KGVO Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Musical numbers were given by Florence Jarussi, Red Lodge; Ruth Benson, Custer; Elizabeth Klemm, Great Falls; Ralph Ueland, Outlook; Nemesio Borge, Philippine Islands, and Fred Odell, Missoula.

Short talks were given by Mary Dohi, Glasgow; Marciano Raquel, Philippine Islands and Leonard Tange, Redstone. Following these talks Carl Pitt gave a discussion on the tariff problem.

Many favorable comments on the program have been received. Leonard Tange has been appointed to direct the next broadcast.

Editor Announces Picture Schedule

"The women's gymnasium has been secured definitely for the taking of group pictures for the 1932 Sentinel Wednesday evening," said Walter P. Cooney, editor, yesterday.

The schedule is as follows:

Sigma Delta Chi	7:15
Varsity Vodvil committee	7:30
Senior Committee Chairmen	7:45
Junior Garb committee	8:00
Sophomore Dance committee	8:15
Freshman committees	8:30
Phi Sigma	8:45

"Since it is a State University rule that there shall be no smoking in the women's gymnasium, anyone seen smoking will be requested to leave, regardless of whether or not he has had his picture taken," declared Cooney.

TOURNEY SURVIVORS ARE IN READINESS FOR ANNUAL BOUTS

Month's Elimination Process Leaves Best of Campus Talent to Meet On M Club Card Thursday Night; Winners Will Fight Bobcats At Bozeman, March 5; Co-ed Fans May Attend

Eight boxing matches and seven wrestling matches, with a foils and a saber contest, will be featured on the M club tournament card Thursday night to determine State University champions. The program will start at 7:30 o'clock. The tournament, under the auspices of the M club, is the result of a month's hard work to present a first-class card to sport fans. Seating arrangements have been completed with the bleachers directly back of the ringside seats. A whole section has been reserved for co-eds and women sports enthusiasts.

Groups Will Draw Locations For Varsity Vodvil Blocks

Groups wishing to buy Varsity Vodvil seats in blocks will draw by lot for their location in the theater this afternoon at 4 o'clock in Main hall auditorium. Students who desire to sit in the Independent block must sign either the list in the Students' Store or in the Library by 4 o'clock. Each organization must know the number of seats it wishes to reserve in order that the size of the block may be determined.

Declamatory Rules Reach High Schools

English Notes Urges Contestants To Select Subjects With Care

Announcement of the Interscholastic Declamation contest has been sent to the principals of accredited high schools in the state, in the English Notes for February, 1932. Prof. E. L. Freeman of the Department of English is chairman of this contest.

The Interscholastic Declamation contest has both a boys' and girls' events, although each school may have but one representative. The contestants must win the right to compete at the Interscholastic contest held at the State University, May 12, and only students in four-year accredited high schools are eligible.

The contestant may give a prose or verse selection, and it may be humorous, pathetic, oratorical or dramatic, but it must not take longer than 10 minutes for delivery. Decision of the judge is based, 70 per cent on the subject and 30 per cent on the delivery.

Varsity Vodvil Manager Announces New Arrangement for Seat Sale

Eighteen Groups Will Purchase Reserved Blocks and Will Draw for Location of Sections By Lot

Tickets for the 1932 Varsity Vodvil, to be presented at the Fox-Wilma theater, Saturday will go on sale Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. They may be obtained from that time on until Saturday night at the booking office on the second floor of the Wilma building.

This year due to an arrangement recently announced by Manager Jack Toole, the majority of the students will be relieved of standing in line waiting for the ticket sale to begin. Nine sororities, eight fraternities and the Independent group all have signified their intentions of buying seats in blocks. As a result 18 blocks have been reserved and representatives of each group will draw by lot for the location of their section in the theater. The drawing will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock in Main hall auditorium. Each representative must know the number of seats to be reserved for his group. Lists have been posted in the Students' Store and in the Library to be signed by anyone desiring to sit in the Independent block. Members of the faculty will be able to reserve seats by signing at the telephone booth in Main hall tomorrow. Prices for the regular seats this year will be 50 cents, 75 cents and one dollar, with loges selling at $1.25. All seats will be reserved.

Ticket Sales

In order that there will be no confusion with regard to the buying of tickets by people who do not purchase a block, no sales will be made except under the following conditions:

1. No tickets will be sold until 10

Schedule of Acts
The schedule of the presentation of the acts and the titles are: Alpha Tau Omega, "Beauty on the Spot"; Delta Delta Delta, "Mantrap"; Rho Dammith Rho, "Bagdad Daddy"; Delta Gamma, "Easily Scene"; Phi Sigma Kappa, "Law in the Ozarks," or "Caught With the Goods"; Sigma Kappa, "Hotel Paroo," and Kappa Sigma, "Up the Creek."

The two trophy cups which will be presented to the winning act in both men's and women's groups, will be placed on display tomorrow in the window of the Kohn Jewelry company. As in former years there will be two shows, the first one beginning promptly at 7 o'clock and the second at 9 o'clock.

THE UDDLE

There are many things in life which we don't enjoy. There are many things we care nothing about and then there are other things, ones we don't have so often, which please us immensely and add happiness to our more-or-less monotonous lives. These latter ones are naturally the ones we like best, the ones we want to keep longest, the ones we want again. Personally, we have several pet topics in this class but this winter we have added another one. This recent addition is something we haven't had much occasion to use but we appreciate it anyway, if not entirely for ourselves, for the rest of those who took advantage of having it. There is a certain portion of the student body which likes to skate and having a rink on the campus is an incentive to do so. In behalf of these students we would like to commend those who have had anything to do with the installation, maintenance and upkeep of the campus rink. We would also like to add a moral to this tale—that which has been successful should be tried again.

There appears to be little doubt that the student body on the whole benefits from intramural sports of any character. Tennis, golf, basketball, baseball, boxing, wrestling, fencing and others give the students who are not specialized athletes a chance to compete in one or more of those sports. At present on the Pacific coast in particular and over the nation in general the schools are being forced to abandon or cut down the intramural and minor sports competition between colleges. This, fortunately, is not true at this institution.

The enthusiasm created in the intramural and sports line is evidenced by the good will shown in the M club tournament and the minor sports meet with the State College to be held March 3 and 5, respectively. Recently a student was appointed to investigate the possibilities of enlarging the program of minor sports within the State University. This is in itself an excellent move. Minor sports, however, do not receive the high-pressure publicity of the major ones, but live on the enthusiasm and backing of the student body.

The student governing body, the Department of Physical Education and the M club have made possible the opportunity of student participation in minor sports. The student body should now do its part.

Reorganization of the constitution of the associated students was suggested last week as a means of minimizing student politics and of getting a more efficient government. The type which probably would prove most successful is one in which a central board would be chosen from the different schools which make up the State University. Our plan is substantially as follows: One representative would be elected from each of the Schools of Business Administration, Education, Journalism, Law, Music, Forestry, Pharmacy and perhaps two from the College of Arts and Science due to its larger enrollment. These delegates would be chosen by the students majoring in those schools. The president and business manager would be elected by the entire student body and would serve as members-at-large. The eleven students together with alumni and faculty representatives would comprise the central council. Necessarily included in the plan would be the re-drafting of the A. S. U. M. constitution, especially its by-laws.

This plan would not mean that supplementary committees such as budget and finance, athletic board, publications, debate and oratory, traditions, women's activity and social would be abolished but only that their organization and work would be clarified. They are needed and would continue their work with the approval of the governing board as at present.

We believe that if this type of student government were adopted it would do much towards reducing criticism of the present system. Other universities and colleges including several on the Pacific coast have found this type to be successful. We feel that the attributes of this system transcend those of the present one and that its evils are materially less.

And what did you girls do yesterday to perpetuate that fine old tradition of Leap Year? You know that yesterday was your day to let your romantic emotions really and truly have no curb and did you avail yourselves of the opportunity? Did you call up your "one and only" and tell him how much you loved him, needed him? And did you inform him that you just must have him and would have him? Or did you act like a shy little violet and just carry on an unexciting conversation? Or did you wait for him to call you? Did you inform him that you were taking him out to dinner in the evening? And maybe you even mentioned the theater afterward? Did you bring along your own cigarettes or did you continue your habit of smoking his? Did you sit in loges or did you join the common people? Did you hold his hand throughout the performance, or did he have to hold yours? Did you take him somewhere to eat after the show? And did you take him home on the bus or did he have to put one foot ahead of the other in order to cover the desired distance? And did you kiss him good night or did he have to kiss you? And did you thank him for honoring you with his company for the evening?

What we are trying to say is that we very much doubt whether this one day out of every four years was observed any differently than the others that have preceded it and those that will follow. Oh well, maybe in 1936 the depression will be over and the co-eds of that time will be able to rejuvenate this old tradition.

MRS. SAM GILLILY VISITS CITY

Mrs. Sam Gillily, formerly Esther Hart, a graduate of the Montana School of Journalism with the class of 1930, visited the Journalism Shack with her infant son, Richard, last week. Mr. Gillily, a graduate of the

Some folks have ambition To be great and famous and all, But my one great ambition Is to obtain the position Of nightwatchman at Corbin hall.

Poetry, dear children, should be simple—so is this week's poet, who is none other than Otto Huddle and who arrived home this morning from the Theological Institute.

Accompanying Otto was George K., well-known campus visitor. After George's last visit he promised not to return this quarter, but did not keep his word.

Boys will be boys, and Otto begot himself dismissed from the institute for cribbing in a christian ethics exam.

Blood is thicker than water—it Otto be—and Uncle, fine old man that he is, is giving Otto another last chance.

On account of the hard times we are not offering a medal this week. If we were we would give it to the freshman who called up a sorority girl the night her tong was giving a dance and asked for a date for that night.

Which reminds us—it is about time for us to be thinking of our selection for May King.

The first thing Otto noticed upon his arrival in Missoula was the absence of his cronies, the Hogans.

Acquaintances of Otto led him to believe that the Hogans are still present in this settlement, but Otto, being a man of great knowledge and a remarkable memory, accounted for every nose of the Hogan family.

Although the entire family is absent from Missoula, Otto brings us the official announcement from Horace Hogan that some member of the family will be a business visitor between quarters.

George K. had a very busy day renewing the many new acquaintances he met while here for Foresters' Ball. Many friends of old standing were also visited.

George K. stayed with some friends for a considerable length of time, but ended up with Otto. (Force of habit.)

Otto tried in vain to shake George K. Others, too, have tried and failed.

The Milwaukee signboard was visited (an errand for Unk) to see if the painters had painted the tracks for the locomotive. They hadn't.

It has been a very busy day, dear children, and Otto is tired. You may never hear of Otto again, so here is his parting toast:

Uncle Huddle is in a muddle To find a successor for next year. There are ideas around If someone is found To write them so that they are clear.

Now Otto is blotto, And rather unsteady, too; If Uncle can't find someone To scribble about bunk and fun, What will the poor man do?

"La Paix Chez Sai" Is Seen by Classes

Arnoldson Gives Reading of Plays Before English Students

Russel Lafond, Milltown, and Geraldine Ede, Polson, assisted Mrs. Arnoldson in her second reading of French plays given for the benefit of students in H. G. Merriam's class in comedy. The reading was given Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at her home, 400 Grand street. Moliere's "Les Femmes Savantes" was read.

Concluding her series of entertainments which she has been giving for her advanced French classes, Mrs. Arnoldson will meet with a section of her 15th class this evening at her home at 7:30 o'clock. A one-act play, "La Paix Chez Sai," by George Courteline, will be presented by Henry Larom, Valley, Wyo., and Doris Kniffen, Bonner. George Dickel, Garrison, and Emma Bravo, Sand Coulee, will interpret the same play for the second section of the class which will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Interfraternity Council meets tomorrow night at the Kappa Sigma house.

No wonder men smoke PIPES!

EVERY PIPE SMOKER has the satisfaction of knowing he has masculine right that the women won't take away from him. They do leave our pipes alone.

And though the girls may not know it, they're leaving us one of the finest smokes a man can have.

There's something calm and soothing about a pipe and good tobacco. It leads to clear-headed thinking. Perhaps that's why the leaders—the real men of the world—are pipe smokers.

College men like a pipe—packed with cool, slow-burning Edgeworth, the favorite pipe tobacco in 42 out of 54 colleges. It's cut especially for pipes, to give a cooler, drier smoke. You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or for a special sampler packet, write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleven-step process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ packet package to $1.50 pound humidifier tin.

Determined Grizzly Team Repels Bobcats' Attacks In Last Game of Season

Stewart's Men Divide Two-game Series With Old Rival from Bozeman; Hinman, Andrews, Lyman, Dahlberg and Murray Give Good Performances in Both Games

A Blue and Gold storm that rolled in from the east and piled up threateningly Friday and Saturday nights in the State University gymnasium was decisively and spectacularly dispelled by a five-man chinook from Montana. Taking the first of the two-game series, the Bobcats threatened to make a clean sweep of all encounters this season with the Grizzlies. But a determined, fast-breaking Montana quint, playing slam-bang basketball, wore down the machine-like floor play and accurate shooting of the State College and took the second encounter by an overwhelming majority of 43-30.

Whenever threatened Friday night, the visitors lengthened their stride, clamped down on defense and slammed in accurate shots from all angles. Either Booth or Buzzetti getting past center with the ball appeared excuse enough for hanging in a field goal. Andrews and Lyman offset the Bobcats' distance shooting to a degree, but could not count regularly enough to present a sustained threat against the sharpshooting bombardment of their opponents.

Dahlberg, Hinman and Murray displayed some of the best guard work seen for some time and effectively kept the Bobcats shooting long range tries. Occasional pull-off plays by the champions would fool a guard into allowing a Bobcat to sneak in for a set-up. Montana's set-up plays were jinxed on Friday night it seemed, with sufficient misses to give them the short end of the score. More difficult shots were made than there were easy attempts.

Bobcats Take Lead
The Cats did not pull away for any great lead until in the second half. In the opening minutes of the first game, the score was tied up at 5-5, again at 13-13 and then the Grizzlies got hot and ran their side to 18 but Arlo, Wendt and Buzzetti flipped in counters just before the gun to end the half, 19-18 in their favor.

An opening barrage laid down in the opening minutes of the last period gave the Blue and Gold a lead that was threatened on several occasions, but was never overcome. Six field goals and a free throw by Boothe in this period more than made up for the sole field basket he contributed the first half, while five tosses from far out by Buzzetti comprised the visitors' addition to the victory ledger.

Saturday's game brought forth some basketball playing that kept the crowd in a constant uproar. Starting with a spurt that put 10 on their side of the board against two for the Grizzlies, the Bobcats found it necessary to battle desperately to maintain a lead that was threatened almost at once and overcome before the period was well under way. A tie at 14-14 was soon broken up by Lyman, whose close-ups worked often, and the half ended, 20-16, for the Grizzlies.

Second Half
The last half opened with a bang, the tri-color team taking the two opening baskets before the Cats could count a gift toss. Two more gave the Grizzlies a 23-17 advantage and ran the Bobcats so hard they called for time out. Whatever "medicine" they made, did not have the right ingredients for the fast floor covering of Logan, the accurate shooting of Andrews, and Lyman's ability to push in rebounds, soon had the Cats taking time out to talk it over again, this time the score at 32-19 with slightly more than 6 minutes left to go.

One more time out period for the visitors with the score at 28-39 failed to bring any results and the Grizzlies pressed their winning spurt to bring the final score to 43-30 as the gun ended the present basketball season, with Ray Buzzetti looping in the final contribution, a bank shot from far down the side.

Hinman Stars
Dale Hinman's inspired guarding was perhaps the most outstanding performance individually. He not only kept the Bobcats from working in on close shots but also took practically every missed field attempt off the board and shot it to Logan or Andrews for a march down the floor. Lyman's control on the toss-up at center gave the Grizzlies a signal advantage throughout the second game, while Logan covered the floor consistently and apparently from all parts at once, feeding the ball to Andrews or Lyman. "Monk" made apparently impossible shots from within a cordon of Bobcats time after time, or, slipping through an impenetrable-looking defense, hung up a close one. Murray and Dahlberg both played cool, heady basketball, and not only kept the Cats away consistently but went down with the ball several times to let their forwards work in for a set-up.

Law School Wins Pennant By Defeating Business Ad Bombers

Sharpshooting by Bill Boone and Owen Loftsgaarden enabled the Law team to defeat the Business Administration quint, 31 to 27, Monday afternoon, to win the inter-school pennant with four victories and one defeat. The Law School led, 15 to 8, at half time.

Boone was high scorer with 12 points. Loftsgaarden and Wendell Williams, of the losing team, tied for second high score honors with 11 points each.

There is yet one game left on the inter-school schedule, that between the School of Journalism and the Business Administration teams. If the latter win they will be in second place. If they lose they will be tied for second with the Pharmacy team.

The School of Business Administration team won the pennant last year.

Eleven Men Will Receive M Sweaters

Lloyd (Monk) Andrews Will Pilot Grizzlies Through the Season Of 1932-1933

"Montana sweaters will be awarded 11 members of this year's Grizzly basketball team in the near future," Coach J. W. Stewart said yesterday. Lloyd Andrews of Big Timber was unanimously elected captain of next year's team.

Men receiving the awards are: Captain Glenn Lockwood, Missoula; Lloyd Andrews, Big Timber; Henry Murray, Enid; James Jones, Bemidji, Minn.; Dale Hinman, Greybull, Wyo.; Chalmer Lyman, Helena; Lewis Steensland, Big Timber; William Erickson and Alfred Dahlberg, Butte; Dave Fitzgerald, Livingston; and Everett Logan, Deer Lodge. Phil Patterson, Missoula, will receive a manager's sweater.

Of these 11 men only two will be lost to next year's team. Glenn Lockwood and Henry Murray graduate in the spring. Dahlberg, Andrews and Logan have another year of basketball, and Steensland, Lyman, Hinman, Jones, Fitzgerald and Erickson have two more seasons to play.

Coach Stewart in an interview after Saturday night's game, praised the sportsmanship and spirit of the Montana team throughout the season. "If athletics are worthwhile at all," he said, it seems to me that they are most valuable for the spirit and courage developed by the men taking part in them.

"From this viewpoint, I consider the 1932 squad the best basketball team that has represented the State University. Confronted by almost every adversity that could happen to any one group of men, faced with the necessity of a changed line-up almost every week, and beset by criticism and unfriendly comments from all sides, the remaining members of the squad tightened their belts and stuck to their jobs. They did not whine about their misfortunes, they did not lose courage and they did not at any time lie down on the job. Their courage and spirit were higher at the end of the season than at any other time. Their misfortunes clung to them right up to the last games of the season but they refused to lose heart and played like champions in the Grizzly-Bobcat series."

Women Are Chosen To Meet Bobcats

Ten women who will represent the State University in the annual play day, March 5, have been chosen by Harriet G. Wood, associate instructor in physical education. The women are: Mary Castles, Superior; Louise Geyer, Great Falls; Sara Miles, Helena; Laura Martin, Stevensville; Elizabeth Perham, Butte; Una Randall and Margaret Randall, both of Wolf Point; Mildred Renshaw, Missoula; Ada Wood, Stevensville; Carol Wells, Scottsville, N. Y.

These women will participate in basketball, volley ball and swimming against the ten delegates from Bozeman who will arrive here Friday night, March 4. The guests will also be entertained by demonstrations in fencing, clogging and tap dancing.

Coaches Set Track Dates For Season

Conference Limits Teams in Dual Meets to Eighteen Contestants

Eighteen men will be the maximum one school can enter in a dual track meet, it was decided at a meeting of the graduate managers of the northern division of the Pacific Coast conference in Seattle the latter part of last week. The former number allowed was 22. Harry Adams represented the State University at the meeting.

The date for the northern division track meet was changed from May 26 and 27 to May 27 and 28. It was voted also to continue conference baseball for at least another season. Other track meets Montana will take part in are: April 30, Montana, Idaho and Washington State, triangular meet at Pullman May 7, the state intercollegiate meet will be held in Missoula, with Montana State College, St. Charles, Intermountain and entrants from other smaller colleges in the state coming to Missoula to attempt to remove the crown the State University has held for several years. On May 14, Idaho comes to Missoula in an effort to repeat its victory of last year. After the conference meet the west coast Olympic try-outs will be held at Los Angeles in June. There is a possibility that several men from Montana may be entered.

It was also decided that in the future there would no longer be complimentary ticket exchanges between the member schools of the conference.

Schools Trim Budgets
The debate budgets in most of the schools have been cut 30 to 40 per cent. Money allowances for minor sports temporarily have been almost entirely cut out," Adams said on his return from Seattle.

"In an effort to cut expenses, most of the coast schools are cutting the size of their annuals nearly 20 per cent. The Oregon State Barometer temporarily has been cut from a daily to a three-weekly paper and the Washington State Evergreen has eliminated its Monday issue of the paper during the months of February and March, and if necessary will extend this period," he also said.

Besides cutting expenses in every department of the school where it is possible, other organizations associated with, but not of, the schools are also cutting expenditures wherever possible. Fraternities are cutting down on the number of dances and parties each semester.

Adams returned from Seattle Sunday.

Cub Players Earn Basketball Awards

Twelve Freshman Players Receive Recognition for Work

Twelve freshmen will receive numerical awards next quarter for basketball participation on the Cub team. Five of these men will receive sweaters, the other members of the squad having been awarded their sweaters in freshman football.

Members of the squad who will receive awards are: Albert Heller, Twin Bridges; William Hileman, Whitefish; James Brown, Butte; Naseby Rhinehart, Milwaukee, Wis.; Cal Emery, Helena; Glen Frisbie, Thompson Falls; Edward Schmolli and Roy Quanstrom, Chicago, Ill.; Frank Vesel, Roundup; Charles Stroup, Billings; Lewis Hartsell, Anaconda; Charles Flanagan, Great Falls.

Brown, Frisbie, Flanagan, Schmolli and Quanstrom will receive sweaters.

Free Throw Contest Will Begin Monday

Aspirants to the 1932 free throw championship will start the first round of the tournament Monday morning in the men's gymnasium. "The first round of the tourney must be completed by Wednesday night," Harry Adams, who is in charge of the tournament, said yesterday.

Emmett Buckley, Glendive, won the contest last year in an extra round of 25 shots from Billy Rohlfis, Sioux Falls, S. D. The men were tied at the end of the four regular rounds of the tourney with 81 points.

Professor Robert L. Housman, associate professor of journalism, will not return to the State University during the summer of 1932, but plans to continue his sabbatical leave at the University of Missouri until next fall, was word recently received by Dean A. L. Stone of the Montana School of Journalism.

Student Forestry Rifle Club Leads In Sharpshooting

Students Lead U. S. Foresters at End of Second Stage in a Four Position Match

School of Forestry rifle club marked the U. S. Forest Service rifle club, 930 to 926, at the end of the first two stages of a four-position match at the target range in the basement of the Chamber of Commerce building Friday evening. The third stage, which is the kneeling position, will be fired tonight.

Ten shots were fired by the 10 contestants on each team. In the prone position the Forest Service led, 481 to 477, but in the second stage the students overcame the lead, scoring 453 to their opponents' 445. The five highest scores of each team were counted.

The scores follow:
Prone: School of Forestry—Hawes, 98; Shields, 95; Matsen, 95; Fobes, 95; Bauer, 94; Rauma, 94; Beechel, 93; Guntermann, 93; Landall, 91; McCarty, 87. Forest Service—R. Woods, 98; H. Woods, 97; Michelsen, 96; Henry, 95; Jost, 95; Phelps, 94; Russell, 93; Swift, 93; Clark, 89; Cooney, 79.

Sitting: Forest School—Landall, 96; Fobes, 92; Matsen, 90; McCarty, 88; Shields, 87; Hawes, 86; Bauer, 81; Guntermann, 81; Rauma, 80; Beechel, 77. Forest Service—Michelsen, 93; R. Woods, 91; Clack, 87; H. Woods, 87; Russell, 87; Swift, 86; Henry, 82; Phelps, 80; Yost, 78; Cooney, 70.

Rhea Dobner, a major in the Department of Home Economics, directed the work in the kitchen and dining room of North hall over the week-end.

On Ominous Odors

Phew! gasped such South hall residents as happened to be in their rooms Wednesday night. Those studying laid down their books; those asleep raised on one elbow.

South hall was disturbed; acrid fumes pervaded the place from basement to garret; something was wrong. And something was!

The Maintenance department speedily repaired a leaking ammonia pipe in the kitchen ice machine, and South hall returned to routine.

Faculty Members Will Give Talks At High Schools

Announcement of Graduation Talks By Faculty Speakers Is Mailed To Schools of State

Lists of speakers from the State University faculty available for high school commencement addresses and their topics were sent to all high schools of the State last Tuesday. The schools were asked to indicate three speakers in the order of their preference and to underline the desired topic among those appearing after the name of the indicated speakers.

The faculty speakers and their subjects are: Dr. W. G. Bateman, "Life's Enthusiasms"; Paul Bischoff, "Life's Handicap"; "The Relation of Education to Life"; Rufus Coleman, "Learn or Perish"; "The Parable of the Soils"; Dr. M. J. Elrod, "Looking Forward"; E. L. Freeman, "Courage Will Do"; and "Mental Unemployment"; Dr. R. H. Jesse (topic to be selected); Dean C. W. Leaphart, "These Perilous Times"; Dean Robert C. Line, "The High School Graduate Faces a New World"; "Education for the Coming Social Order"; and "Can We Afford Our Educational Institutions?"; Dr. Edward M. Little, "The Challenge of Modern Life for the Graduate"; "Opportunities on Account of Depression"; "Am I My Brother's Keeper?"; "Science Helps Religion"; and "Democracy and Dogmatism."

W. E. Maddock, "Smilin' Through"; G. A. Matson, "The Enduring Value of Things Not Seen"; "Some Lessons from a Tree"; and "The Nobility of Work"; Dr. J. E. Miller, "Commencing What?"; Dr. Lucia B. Mirrieles, "Rhythms in a Mechanical Age"; Bernard B. Oakes, "Athletics and the Building of Character"; and "What We Learn from Athletic Competition"; Darrell R. Parker, "Hard Times and Soft Thinking"; and "Our Vanishing Ideals."

J. H. Ramskill, "Why College Pays"; C. H. Riedell, "Art in Relation to Life"; "Art of Living"; and "Our Limitations and Conventions"; Dr. J. P. Rowe, "Man's Place in Nature"; and "Seeing Through Others' Eyes"; W. E. Schreiber, "Socialization Through Recreation"; Dr. J. W. Severy, "Science and the Modern World"; "Choosing a Life Work"; and "Does Higher Education Pay?"; J. W. Stewart, "The Contribution of Athletics to Education."

Monday afternoon Dick Jones defeated Boh Huppe in two rounds to go into the tournament against Chuck Goodspeed, defending title holder. The bout was a fight to the finish of the second round, but Jones showed a superiority in the accuracy of his punches and an aggressiveness which gained him the decision. The second battle was between Noral Whittinghill and Frederick Elsethagen. Whittinghill won the bout and the right to battle Francis Malone, last year's champion.

Last Friday Huppe mixed gloves with Harold Hague for two fast rounds. Huppe won the decision. Corliss Little and James Roberts fought in the middleweight class to see who would enter the finals against the winner of the Fallman-Paul Malone bout. Little triumphed over Roberts in the second round, the first being a draw. Fallman and Malone put on the gloves between halves of the Grizzly-Robcat game to decide one middleweight finalist. The decision went to Fallman.

In the heavyweight division Red Eck was forced to withdraw because of sinus trouble, leaving Amundsen and Carpenter to battle it out in the finals.

Congill-Dressell Bout
In wrestling Jack Congill and Wilfred Dressell tangled twice for six minutes without either gaining the decision. The two will go against each other today to determine who will go against Fred Benson in the tournament. The match will be a decision bout in case a fall does not determine the victor.

In the 125-35-pound class, an opponent for Ryland Walford is yet to be picked.

Nelson's opponent in sabers will be decided Wednesday.

Co-eds desiring tickets in the section reserved for them may buy them at the Student Store or from M club men for 75 cents. Ringside seats are $1, general admission, 75 cents and tickets for high school students, 50 cents.

Harry Billings, Camas Hot Springs, attended the western district basketball tournament finals at Hamilton Saturday.

Debate Team Will Argue Bimetallism

Scott and Parker Arrange Debates Before Engineering Societies

On March 28, a State University debate team will appear before the monthly meeting of the Butte engineering society and oppose a School of Mines team on the question of bimetallism. The Missoula team will favor a single gold standard as opposed to a system of bimetallism.

This debate has been arranged by Professor Scott of the School of Mines faculty, in co-operation with Darrell Parker, State University debate coach. Scott and Parker are now working on the possibility of arranging debates between the two teams in other Montana cities. They have met with favorable response and encouragement from the engineering society in Great Falls and hope to be able to sponsor such a debate there at a later date, possibly March 29.

Sunday evening, March 20, a University of Wyoming team will argue for the return of the Democratic party in the coming elections. The State University team will uphold the present administration. No teams have been selected for either of these debates as yet, and as it is necessary to organize at once, all men interested in either engagement should see Mr. Parker immediately at his office in the Library.

DECLAMATION RULES ARE SENT TO HIGH SCHOOLS

dent's understanding of the selection, and 30 per cent on his power of communication, as judged by his enunciation, distinctness, appropriateness and pleasantness of voice and the relationship established between the speaker and his audience.

Preliminary and semi-final competitions will be held on the morning of May 12, and the final contests will be held in the evening. The Inter-scholastic committee, making an especial effort to get the contestants to choose pieces that are not worn by too-frequent repetition, has published a partial list of pieces that are recommended for omission from the contestants' topics.

Two medals are given in the boys' contest, and three medals are given to the winners of the girls' contest. Winners in the contest last year were Ossie Taylor, Missoula County high school, who gave "The Death Disk," by Mark Twain, and Harry Hofner, Butte, who gave "Submerged," by Cottman and Shaw. Both winners are freshmen at the State University this year.

Janitors' Dilemma

No wonder State University janitors are good natured. Here's how they keep their smiles from rusting.

Walter Pool loves the sentimental reporter who sits dejectedly at his typewriter tearing masterpieces to shreds and allowing them to fall into the cracks of the rough floor of the Journalism Shack.

W. (Irish) Hopper professes fondness for the tobacco-chewing forester who expectorates on the hall floor of the Forestry building and tries to erase the blot with the heel of his boot.

Dogs amuse Frank Keim—especially professors' dogs who insist on being near their masters all day long in the Natural Science building.

A. J. McDonald, keeper of the State University library, among other things, entertains affection for clock-inspecting Kaimin feature writers.

Ask any of the fellows who clean up the classrooms used by the high school students on the campus what they think of chewing gum that someone has skated on. How they love it!

Druid Alumni Speak At Regular Meeting

Druids, men's honorary forestry organization, held a regular meeting in the School of Forestry library Wednesday night. John Jost and Hugh Redding, visiting alumni, gave short speeches. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the annual formal dance.

Jost's lecture subject was aerophotography concerning topographic maps of forest areas. Redding, '31, talked on Forester's Ball. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Mrs. N. H. Browning of Belt visited her daughter, Joy, over the week-end.

Mountaineers Visit Marshall Summit

Eleven Attempt Skiing Trip; Six Reach Goal

Montana Mountaineers, local outing club, made its skiing trip to the glacial cirque nesting in the summit of Marshall mountain last Saturday. The group was under the leadership of Edward M. Little, professor of physics at the State University.

"Probably the most difficult snow conditions possible were encountered on the trip," declared Dr. Little. "The drifts were nearly impassable, the result of a week of high temperatures. The surface crust was easily broken through to five or six feet of soft snow." Dr. Little stated that the temperature at the summit was 35 degrees above zero.

A sweeping panorama, extending southwest beyond Lolo into Idaho, south beyond Trappers' Peak—100 miles distant—to the Salmon river country in Idaho and southwest to the Rockies of the continental divide behind Anaconda, was clearly visible to the party.

Members making the trip were Harriet Lynn, Edythe Hall and Dr. Little. Guests included Millard Evenson, Peder Pederson, George Brooks, Forrest Bauer, Dodds Bunch, Lloyd Hague, Rev. O. R. Warford and Hampton Snell. Six of the party succeeded in reaching the summit.

PSI CHI WILL MEET

John O'Brien, Butte, will speak on a specially prepared topic, "The Correlations of Personality Tests," at the monthly meeting of Psi Chi tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Prof. E. A. Atkinson will discuss before the group, "Impressions at Stanford University."

Members of the organization are asked to be present at the meeting. It will be held at the Zeta Chi house with Eleanor Kaatz acting as hostess.

Corbin Hall Lunch Room Is Success

"The lunch room, which was conducted by the institutional management class at Corbin hall last week, proved to be very successful," stated Mrs. Monica B. Swearingen yesterday. Mrs. Swearingen, associate professor of home economics, supervised the project. Each student was given the opportunity of working in different positions, such as cashier, waitress, care of the dining room and work in the kitchen in connection with the preparation of the food.

"Many of the faculty asked that the lunches be continued," Mrs. Swearingen said. "Because of lack of help the class is unable to continue the project."

For the next day or two the class will determine which was the favorite food of the faculty and students who patronized the lunches.

CLASS GIVES RECEPTION

An informal reception will be conducted by the foods 21 class this afternoon under the direction of Anne Platt, associate professor of home economics. The guests will be the students of two groups.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Spafford of Kalispell visited Jack and Rachel Spafford over the week-end.

Language Group Discusses Mann

Prof. and Mrs. W. P. Clark entertained the Modern Language group at their home Friday evening. Mrs. Flora Weisberg discussed the work of Thomas Mann, a Nobel prize winner. Mrs. Weisberg read portions of "Tonio Krueger," Mann's latest book, which is supposed to be a partially autobiographical novel. "Buddenbrooks" and "Magic Mountain" are two of the best known books which Mann has written.

"I'd hate to be called an Outdoor Girl!"

"THAT usually means a girl's a total loss in a tete-a-tete . . . and takes up 'nature' as a last resort! But I must confess a liking for hills and forest trees . . . and all genuine natural things.

"I like the simple sincerity of Chesterfield's advertising. Have you noticed it? There's no extravagance in the claims. Just everyday facts about the fine tobaccos they select and the painstaking way they develop the flavor and aroma.

"I've never smoked a milder cigarette! And I never tire of the flavor . . . a fine natural tobacco taste. They burn evenly, too. Either they're rolled more carefully . . . or the paper's better. I feel the greatest confidence in Chesterfields. They satisfy me!"

• Listen in...Hear Chesterfield's Radio Program. Nat Shilkret and his brilliant orchestra. Every night, except Sunday...Columbia Broadcasting System... 10:30 E. S. T. Music that satisfies!
